

Please, keep the strength in New Jersey's Do Not Call Program. It has improved our quality of life. I don't even want calls from people with whom I have had a previous business relationship.